

News From

JACK DOYLE

MONROE COUNTY EXECUTIVE

For Immediate Release
Friday, March 24, 2000

COUNTY & DEPUTY SHERIFFS' ASSOCIATION REACH TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

Monroe County Executive Jack Doyle, Sheriff Andrew Meloni and Monroe County Deputy Sheriffs' Association President Richard Stirpe today announced that they have reached a tentative four-year collective bargaining agreement.

The agreement, which would be in place from 2000-2003, affects the wages and health insurance of over 500 Monroe County Sheriff's Department employees in the Jail, Civil and Court Security Bureaus.

"Sheriff Meloni and I are very pleased to settle this agreement amicably and we look forward to continuing the productive relationship we have enjoyed with this union," said County Executive Doyle.

"It's a tribute to the hard work and creativity of all parties involved in this complex process that a fair and equitable agreement was reached in such a relatively short amount of time," said Sheriff Andrew Meloni.

"Both the negotiating team and I are pleased with the outcome of our negotiations with the County. I am looking forward to bringing the agreement to the Union membership for their vote," said President Richard Stirpe of the Deputy Sheriffs' Association.

This agreement is subject to the approval of the union membership and the Monroe County Legislature.

#

For more information, call:
Communications and Special Events at 428-2380
See us on the web at www.co.monroe.ny.us

